

Handout: Quiz Part 1 (Double-sided)

---

1. Which of these inventions was not yet created in 1922?
  - D. The radio
  - E. The traffic light
  - F. The Band-Aid

2. In 1922, who could vote in every state of the USA?
  - D. Men who were considered “White”
  - E. Men and women who were considered “White”
  - F. All men and women

3. In 1922, who could immigrate to the US and become a citizen?
  - D. People from Europe or Latin America
  - E. People from Northern Europe, Western Europe, or Latin America
  - F. People from any nation

4. In 1922, most American girls were required to study "Domestic Sciences" or "Home Economics." Which topics were included?
  - A. Cooking
  - B. Cleaning
  - C. Sewing
  - D. All of the above

5. The first record of a rabbi writing about a “Bat Mitzvah” is from what country?
  - A. Iraq
  - B. Italy
  - C. Denmark

6. What inspired Rabbi Mordecai Kaplan to be the first rabbi in the U.S. to promote a Bat Mitzvah as a synagogue ritual?
  - A. Other rabbis, outside of the U.S. who were creating private Bat Mitzvahs
  - B. Women who demanded the right to vote as part of the feminist movement
  - C. Friends of his daughter, Judith

7. Judith, the first U.S. Bat Mitzvah, didn’t do everything that girls now do in a Bat Mitzvah ceremony. For example:
  - A. She read from a Chumash (a printed Torah) instead of a Torah scroll.
  - B. She did not stand on the stage – the bimah – of the synagogue.
  - C. She did not wear a tallit.
  - D. All of the above

8. What was Judith Kaplan’s personal experience of being the first Bat Mitzvah like?
  - A. She hated it and felt like she was doing it for her father.
  - B. She felt proud and said, “No thunder sounded. No lightning struck.”
  - C. She felt unprepared and said, “It was rushed.”